To Whom It May Concern,

Katlyn worked directly for me for the past year on content creation and design. I develop online education with varying subject matters and utilize various software applications.

Katlyn was extremely organized and was able to work on multiple projects simultaneously. She provided design to the educational text and created an elevated finished product to ensure the students would be engaged. She demonstrated the ability to understand the written text and support it with images and diagrams. Katlyn demonstrated her adeptness at learning new software and using features to further along the projects.

Katlyn is highly creative and knowledgeable of standard software. She has the ability to listen to the needs of the project and offer a variety of solutions. She works well in a team environment and on her own.

I highly recommend Katlyn and believe she will be an asset to your team.

Sincerely,

Lori Vargas, MBA
